From sponsored posts and native advertising to video features - we'll work with you to create a custom campaign that meets your needs and expectations.

Not sure where to start? Here are our top performers:

Editorial Sponsorship

Editorial sponsorship (aka Sponsored Posts) is content that is funded by and created in collaboration with an advertiser. The content is produced, written and edited by Updato team to the same standards as all editorial content.

Video Features

A video feature is one of the most effective ways to visually showcase your product and engage your target audience. Whether it's a Top Tech feature or a dedicated product review, we take great pride in producing visually-stunning footage that unveils your brand in an unforgettable fashion.

Native & Experimental

Native and experimental advertising is a powerful way to celebrate the new generation (the Yuccies) by creating unique and custom experiences that engage, inform and compel the audience in a seamless way. Sky's the limit - let's collaborate and get creative.

Banner & Interstitial

Banner ads are what we're all acquainted with. We support a wide variety of standard ad sizes including 300x250, 300x600, 970x250 and 728x90; as well as featured headers, full page background ads and mobile popups.

let's WORK TOGETHER.

With a creative team of professionals, our mission is to help brands tell their stories in ways that drive real brand-awareness, user engagement and customer acquisition.

With editorial sponsorship, video features, and custom ad campaigns, we work closely with brands to create original and globally recognized content.
